Now that we're at the end of our summer season, we want to give thanks to all of our parents and students for choosing to be a part of our KIDS AT PLAY program. We continue to provide opportunities for growth throughout the year and hope you'll attend the end of summer picnic at Burfoot Park to sign up for fall classes and Kids in Koncert, as well as KIDS AT PLAY 2011! If you ever have questions, we want to help - so give our office staff a call any-time at (360) 943-2744.

MIKADO Tickets On Sale!

KAP Tickets are available for purchase through The Washington Center and at the door 2 hours prior to curtain. Call 360-753-8586 or visit www.olytix.org Box office open Noon - 6 pm, Tues. - Fri.

ATTENTION Parent and Student Bakers: Pie in the Sky is NEXT WEEK! Don't wait to enter the Pie Baking Contest! Enter online at: www.capitalplayhouse.com/support/pie DELICIOUS PRIZES AWAIT PIE WINNERS!

KIDS AT PLAY Wishlist:

We are in need of filing cabinets to help organize the gobs of sheet music that has been seperated into categories for Kids in Koncert, TroyzBoyz and Krazy8!! If you've got one you want to get rid of - or perhaps even a lead on one - call or stop by the Playhouse!

Missing your favorite hoodie, worn-down vans or water bottle? There's a good chance it's in the Lost and Found bin at Capital Playhouse. Last chance to grab those items is at the End of Summer Picnic. After that, your items can be repurchased at the local Goodwill or seen on stage during Season in a Box!

Nanki-Poo has banished himself from the little town of Titipu because he is hopelessly in love with the beautiful young lady, Yum-Yum. Yum-Yum however, is engaged to her guardian, Ko-Ko. After an odd turn of events, it turns out that Ko-Ko has been reprieved of an untimely death sentence, and has earned a promotion to the post of Lord High Executioner. Unfortunately, he is not a big fan of killing people. With the Mikado of Japan becoming increasingly annoyed at the lack of executions taking place, Ko-Ko makes a deal with Nanki-Poo. He allows Nanki-Poo to marry Yum-Yum for one month, as long as he is executed after that month. Complications arrive though, when it is discovered that a condemned man's wife must join her spouse in death by being buried alive. Arthur Sullivan and W. S. Gilbert's ninth of their fourteen operatic collaborations is one of the most frequently played musical theatre pieces in history!

Speaking of Season in a Box! Season ticket packages are still available and we've got an incredible season lined up October through May! Single tickets will go on sale beginning August 31 at the Capital Playhouse box office: 360.943.2744 • More information: www.capitalplayhouse.com/performances1011.html

HELP WITH KAP 2010 DEMOLITION!

We need help dismantling, disassembling, and demolishing the shows that have closed this summer! If you have time (parents or students) and would like to help take sets apart, sort and stock costumes, and various other projects, please contact or come down to the Playhouse!

Join the crew for STRIKE NIGHTS!

Parents: Come help with strike on closing night of the show if you can! AND if you've got an extra cordless screw gun you can bring, we always need extras to keep everyone working!

The lobby closes 30 min. after the show.

Parents not assisting with strike will need to wait outside.

Turning Leaf Productions is selling DVDs of each production. Pick up a form in the SPSCC lobby before the show or at intermission.

ATTENTION: ABSOLUTELY NO PARENTS BACKSTAGE! THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS.

We have students changing backstage, and it is extremely important for the safety and privacy of all actors.

Pie in the Sky Auction and Baking Contest on Tuesday, August 17!
